

YogaCore™ Mission Statement

Our mission is to be an international charity dedicated to enhancing the lives of all people through the life-affirming practice of yoga. Our goal is to promote the development and implementation of accessible, joyful yoga programs for adults and children, including populations with special needs. We intend to create a global yoga community that will support and provide yoga services to strengthen the core of humanity.

Special Notice: We will reschedule the YogaCore™ Disco Charity Ball previously Scheduled for Saturday, February 10, 2007. We will post more information in the upcoming months about another date for the party and live audition. We are looking for volunteers and those interested in being involved in helping out with this great cause. If you are interested in making a donation, volunteering or advertising, please call or email us at mara@yogacore.org. We appreciate your support.

YogaCore™ operates with a Board of Directors approved budget and by good business management practices. YogaCore™ will be a 501(c)(3) corporation in order to provide tax incentives to its contributors. Down Dog Productions is a division of Yogawerks, Inc.

Down Dog Productions™

For more information, please call 847-713-2423